Submitted by Lure Field Trial Coordinator, Jocelyne Gagné
 Circumstances made it impossible for the IWCC Lure Field Trial Committee to secure the necessary equipment to run a Lure Trial in conjunction with the IWCC Conformation Specialty, so the committee obtained approval from the IWCC, CKC and OLCA (Ontario Lure Coursing Association), to have the OLCA host our specialty trial in conjunction with their October trials. OLCA was very welcoming and I would especially like to thank Heather Jean Dansereau and Anne Hulley who supported our efforts and made it an easy partnership.

We had 5 hounds in the regular stakes (4 Open and 1 Field Champion) and 6 hounds in the Singles and Puppy Stakes (4

Starkeepers Storm Stryker (Gagne & Ivanovskis) was the winner of the Perpetual Arahu trophy for Best in Puppy Stakes.

First Time Entered, highest scoring Conformation Champion and 3rd in Open Stakes was Can.Am.DC, Gr.Am.Ch. Glenamadda Starkeeper Connery, RN (Wright, Gagne & Prokopenko).

Singles and 2 Puppies). Best in Breeder Stakes was Starkeeper (Gagne). The Lure Field Trial Committee who worked with me were Celeste Atkinson, Lani Hopf and Sylvia Tamm. Thank you ladies for your ongoing commitment to performance events for Irish Wolfhounds.

Thank you to our IWCC Lure Field Trial Trophy Donors for offering recognition to our participants in the trial with beautiful trophies. As with the conformation specialty we featured some lovely glass pieces created by Carole Guilfoyle. Contributors to the trophy fund were: Celeste Atkinson, Joanne Buehner Brown, DVM, Jocelyne Gagné, Lani Hopf, Karon Ozols, Sylvia Tamm, Sid Wood, Forty Creek Distillery (Bill Ashburn), Purina.

First Place in Singles Stakes was Starkeeper's Ryn (Luke, Durrant & Gagne).

Second place in Singles Stakes was Taliesin's Realta Gheal I Bodach (Atkinson & Smith/Smith). "Rigel" is pictured here with Judge David Snider and owner Celeste Atkinson
