

A day at the races... LGRA • April 26, 2014

I want to express my gratitude to the race committee for this event... my good friends Celeste Atkinson, Lani Hopf-King and Sylvia Tamm. Their efforts and willingness to pitch in made this a very enjoyable experience. Thank you as well to all of the folks who stepped up and provided support, additional trophies and sheer manpower to help put up and take down the race track... Jude Callender, Karen Ozols, Andrea and Malcolm Duncan.

The weather was perfect for racing, and once again Dave McMahon and Laurie Soutar made their Tattletale Farm in Princeton, Ontario, available. Dave worked as our lure operator throughout the morning. Andrea and Malcolm Duncan (Bronte Harbor Trading Company) provided a lovely “bunny bomb” (fragrant bath salts) to each participant! As this was our regifting meet we were able to keep our expenses low, and utilized donated rosettes for the winners, thereby eliminating that cost. Even though we had seven brand new runners, most hounds completed their races and there were no incidents on the track. And a first-time entry ended up topping the field of runners... congratulations to Rogue (Starkeeper Rena’s Rogue). We had a three-way tie for second place between the boys, and many happy hounds at the end of the meet. Special thanks to Karon Ozols who was pressed into service as a line judge. Karon didn’t have any hounds entered, but she was travelling with me to the national specialty in Missouri.

Thank you Lani for your work prior to the event, and to Celeste and Sylvia who helped plan this meet, and for your hard work to set up and take down the track and run the meet! As ever, John Luke worked at whatever was required to help keep the meet running. Of course we are so grateful to Dave and Laurie who made their property available, provided the equipment and spent time helping us to run the event. They are great sighthound sportspeople! We also welcomed two new people to racing, Jason and Lynn Lawless and their hound Fiona. What a great team we all made; everyone worked together to make this a fun activity. Thank you to all of the participants who pitched in to make this such a pleasant and successful event. It was a good time for hound and human.
