

THE IWCC AMBASSADORS CONTACT LIST

Ambassadors of the IWCC, are long-standing owners of Irish Wolfhounds, with some former breeders possessing valuable expertise to contribute to the Club's public education initiatives. They are prepared to share their extensive knowledge, assist prospective owners in acquiring essential information, and graciously extend invitations for visitors to observe the life of a Wolfhound in a nurturing environment.

In the event that there are no local ambassadors available in your area, please contact the secretary for assistance. Additionally, you can refer to the "Finding a Reputable Breeder" section on our website, where a comprehensive list of members and breeders can be found to aid in your search.
