2024 JUDGES' BIOGRAPHIES

NATIONAL SPECIALTY

DR. FREDERIC MAISON, FRANCE

My real passion with dogs began in 1981. As a present for graduating from veterinary school my parents gave me a Greyhound bitch. Although she was bought as a pet, I became more and more interested in dog shows and that is where I saw an Irish Wolfhound for the first time. Then I started to breed Irish Wolfhounds.

Unfortunately, I can only breed about two litters a year due to my heavy work schedule, for it is something I really enjoy and love. Since 2015 I breed with my partner Flavio Freitas who has a real talent for training and preparing the dogs for the competitions.

I am President of the French IW and Deerhound club since 2004, which is a big responsibility and a lot of work. I am also member of the committee of the French kennel club and of the scientific commission. At present I am qualified as judge for group 10.

It is a pleasure to meet you and your dogs, which enjoy a fine worldwide reputation.

CAROLE GUILFOYLE, CANADA – SWEEPSTAKES

Born in 1944 and raised in Britain, I came to Canada in the sixties, straight from college.

I have been involved with pure bred dogs since the early seventies; breeding and showing Irish Wolfhounds. I am a life member of the CKC and the Burlington Kennel Obedience Club; being President and Secretary back when All Breed Clubs were an important part of the dog scene. On the All-Breed Show scene, I was a ring steward at hundreds of shows over the years. I have judged Wolfhound specialty sweepstakes all over the continent and some Group 2 sweeps.

I have been very involved with the Irish Wolfhound Club of Canada since its first years, have held many positions at various times, including President and Secretary; have been Show Chairman and Secretary.

I currently live in Southern Ontario with my husband, Jim Todd and one Border Terrier. I am an artist, painting and carving dogs and I try to assist clubs by producing cold cast bronze items at low cost, that can be used for trophies.

I love Wolfhound puppies and am thrilled to be given the honour of going over some again.

REGIONAL SPECIALTY

JAMIE SOUZA BARTLETT, USA

My mother received her first Irish Wolfhound from my grandmother 46 years ago when I was 2, and I have been involved with the breeding and handling of our Limerick Irish Wolfhounds from that time. Over the years, I have also bred Whippets, Salukis and Afghan Hounds. As a child and teenager, I devoted all extra time to the sport of dogs. I worked for Patricia Trotter (Craigie) for four years, and when I was in eighth grade, I went to work for Mary Dukes throughout high school. I also become involved in junior handling presenting Whippets, Irish Wolfhounds and Salukis. In 1992, I was awarded California Junior Handler of the Year, and in 1993, I won the World Series of Junior Handling and was sent to both Crufts and the World Show as a representative of the US.

My mother and I campaigned our Irish Wolfhounds to Number One in 13 of the last 25 years, and our family was honored to be named as the 2013 AKC Hound Group Breeder of the Year. In 50 years, we have produced only 16 litters and as breeders we have always challenged ourselves to produce the highest quality dogs in a limited number of breedings. As a judge, I am approved for a handful of hounds which has allowed me to maintain my love for the sport of dogs while giving me the time to focus on my family and career. I have been honored to judge Irish Wolfhounds in the United States, Australia, the United Kingdom and Italy and I deeply appreciate being brought to Canada to judge your coming Specialty.

DANN WILSON, CANADA – SWEEPSTAKES

I have been a Canadian Kennel Club judge since 2013. Starting in terriers, but my interest in hounds has been ongoing for many years. When I became involved in the sport of purebred dogs in 1992, I became friends with many Hound enthusiasts in those early days. For a number of years, I was invited to ring steward for OSA by Dick Mean and John Reeve Newson. Since those early years, I have become acquainted with a number of Irish Wolfhound breeders both in Canada and the UK. After ring stewarding at your 2023 show, I am honored to be asked to judge sweepstakes at your September '24 show and look forward to this opportunity. Living in Niagara Falls, I still breed and show my Cesky Terriers, with my wonderful partner Shawn.
